Some rascal who hates society! This type of guys is often extra dangerous!

But it is the Contaminator!
Indeed. So he was it!
Really?

That guy has struck again! How can one conceive of that!
Banana peels! How humilating! But I'll pay him back!
When I get hold of this scoundrel, I'll put him into a washing machine and centrifuge him – and not on overdrive!
Oh dear!
He's getting his anger!
Will we go home now?
Absolutely not! We wanted to go to Granny, so we're going! Let's get going!
We'll reach our goal by feet, too! We're lucky that it isn't too far anymore!
After a sizeable march...
Do you really not want to stay for a few days, Donald?
No, sadly I can't, Granny! I've got buisness to do in town. So bye and have a nice vacation, kids!

Without having the family weighing down on me, the Duck Avenger can now fully take action!
And yet I am at my secret equipment depot 16, whose mechanism is controlled through this pillar! Hehe!
KNARZ!
KLICK!
I have to say, that's a great hideout! Here I can transform to Duck Avenger in no time...
... the avenger of the poor and disenfranchised! I'm coming!
Yikes, how clumsy!
KLACK!
Heeeeeelp! Ouuuuuch!
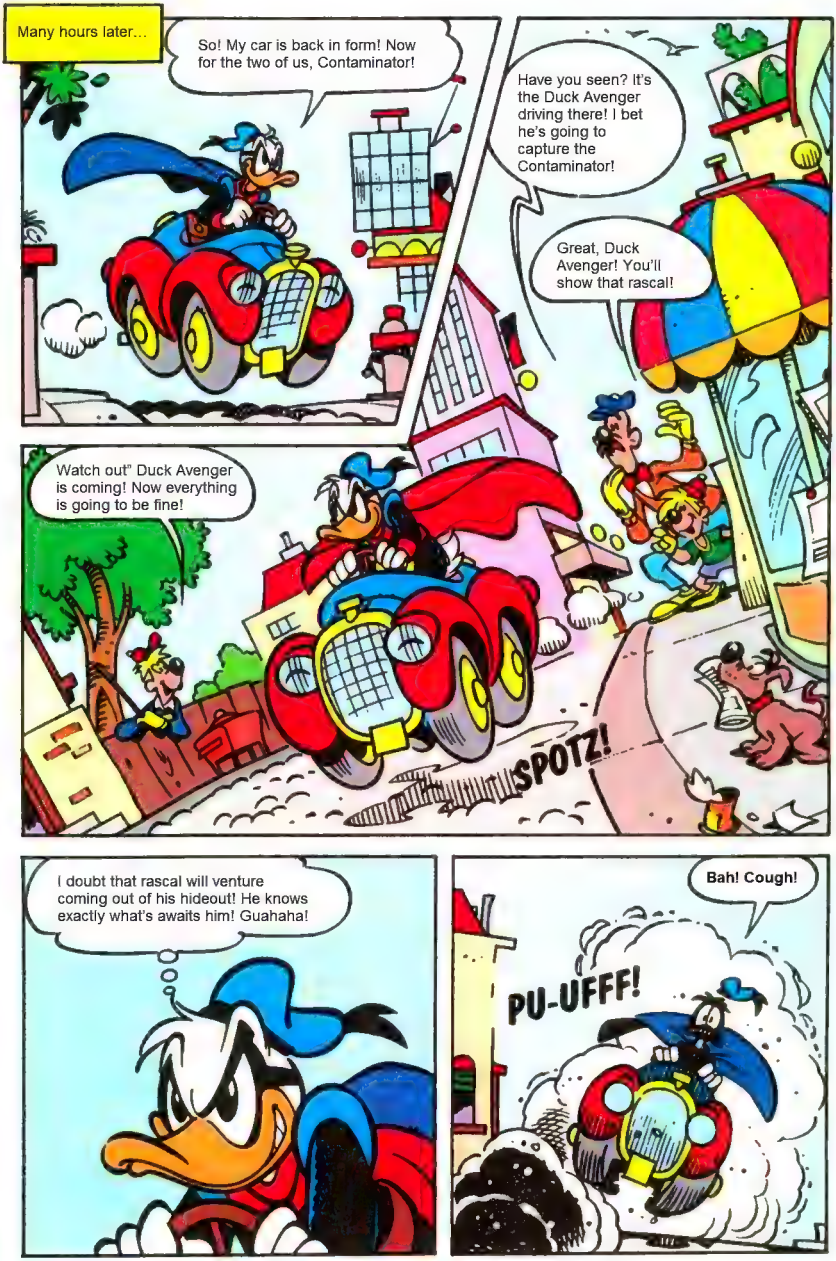
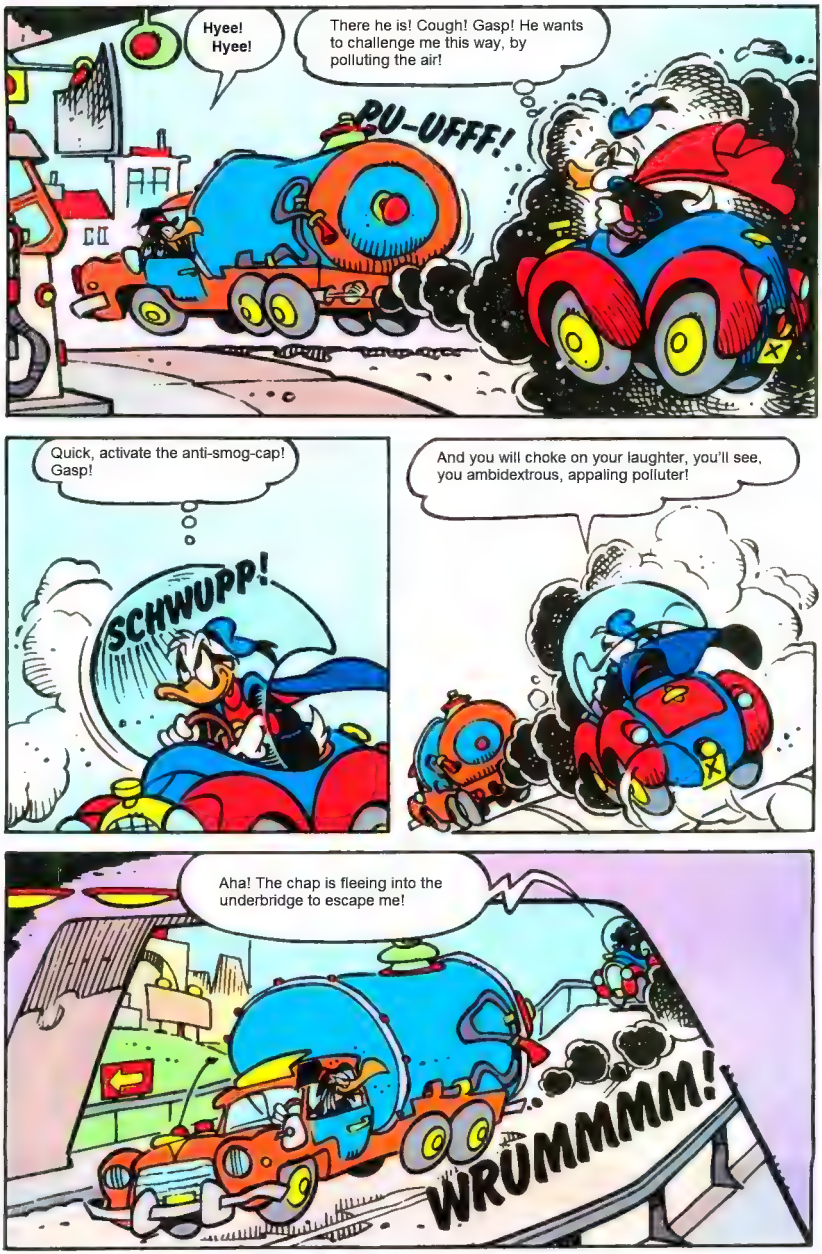
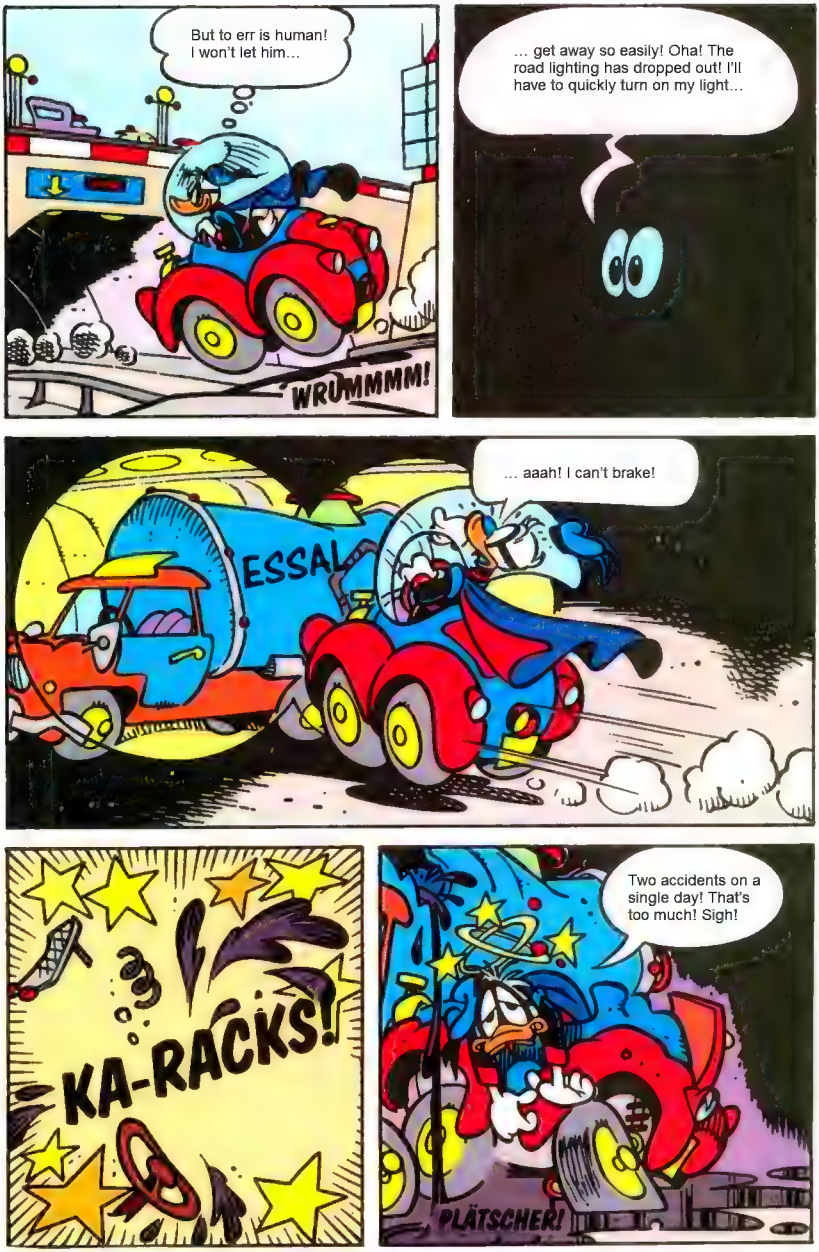
RUMS!
Pant! Maybe a suitcase for my equipment would suffice, too?!



Many hours later...
So! My car is back in form! Now for the two of us, Contaminator!
Have you seen? It's the Duck Avenger driving there! I bet he's going to capture the Contaminator!
Great, Duck Avenger! You'll show that rascal!
Watch out" Duck Avenger is coming! Now everything is going to be fine!
SPOTZ!
I doubt that rascal will venture coming out of his hideout! He knows exactly what's awaits him! Guahaha!
Bah! Cough!
PU-UFFF!



Hyee! Hyee!
There he is! Cough! Gasp! He wants to challenge me this way, by polluting the air!
RU-UFFF!
Quick, activate the anti-smog-cap! Gasp!
SCHWUPP!
And you will choke on your laughter, you'll see, you ambidextrous, appaling polluter!
Aha! The chap is fleeing into the underbridge to escape me!
WRUMMMM!



But to err is human! I won't let him...
WRUMMMM!

Drive up a bit more, so that we can see what's going on there!
POLIZEI

Blimey! Just look at the Duck Avenger! Like a haystack!
And there's someone skedaddling who's looking just like the Contaminator! Now it all falls into place!
Hyee! Hyee!
Go! After him!
Don't panic! He won't get far with that strange unicycle!
Don't say that, my dear! He's turning into a small side street! Soon he'll be gone!
POLIZEI
Simply vanished!
Gee!

But no, you silly, here I am! Directly above your heads! Hyee!
?!
PLATSCH!
Yikes! Yuck! Ugh!
Snort! Spit! Disgusting
What is this?
Ugh! House paint or such a thing!
Wait a moment! Your costumes aren't finished yet!
FEDERN
Very nice! Hyee! Hyee!
Now he has feathered us! What a shame! What a shame!

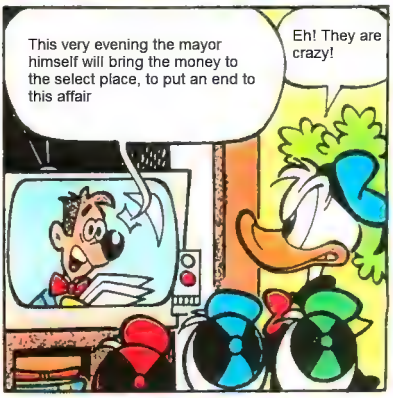
Unbelievable! A bin liner flying through the window!
It checkmate the mayor!
Rubbish my ass! Two bricks are in here... and a message!
Give it to me! I had to take the rap! So it obviously is for me!
SCHNAPP!
Aah! It's a blackmailing letter!
What you just experienced is only the beginning, if you don't put a million dollar into the third container of Ditchstreet. I really mean it!
The Contaminator
One million dollars! And public budget is incredibly tight! Oh dear! Oh dear!
You won't pay him, will you?!

Just leave it to me, Mr. Mayor! I'll catch that guy in no time!
Heh! I don't think so!
What? What does this mean?
That you're a horrible boaster! Remember the tunnel!
End it! I will pay him! But naturally I expect that the police captures the Contaminator during the handover of money!
Great idea!
And... what will I do?
You will stay out of that, Duck Avenger! This is the police's affair! We don't have use for amateurs here!
What? Such an impudence!
RATHAUS
I've totally disgraced myself! Sigh! And the Contaminator is rubbing his hands with satisfaction!
Oh dear, oh dear! Will the famous Duck Avenger, avenger of the poor and disenfranchised really abandon the field? – And will the police manage to capture the Contaminator? You'll see in part 2!

DER SCHMUTZGEIER SCHLÄGT ZU

After his miserable and devastating defeat, the Duck Avenger (aka Donald) has decided to return to his private live for the time being...

After the kids have returned home...
Quick, Unca Donald! They are reporting about the Contaminator on the TV!
The mayor wants to cave in to the blackmailer's claims now!



As if the case was closed with that! Soon enough the Contaminator will demand another million... and then another one!
You can't trust such scoundrels!
According to well-inform... click!

Do they want the town to suffer from the mean assaults of that crackpot indefinitely?

Only one thing will help here: The Duck Avenger has to come back and take matters back in his hands... even against the will of the police if it needs to be so!

If they like it or not – in the end only one will be victorious: The unheard-of Duck Avenger!

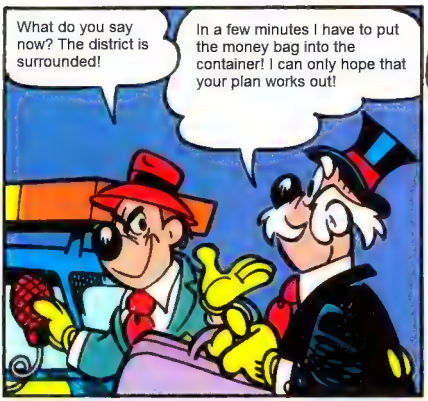
And so, this very evening...
Hehehe! Hehe!

Attention! Attention! To all units! Are all of you in your position?
Here's carriage number 13! Yes, we're ready!

Hello! Carriage number 25 to central! We have assumed our position!

Attention, central! Here's carriage number 34! We're in position!

Carriage number 19 is in position, too!
Good! Stay where you are and wait for instructions! End!



What do you say now? The district is surrounded!
In a few minutes I have to put the money bag into the container! I can only hope that your plan works out!

I promise that to you, Mr. Mayor! The container won't be left out of side for a moment! As soon as someone comes close to take the bag, we'll strike…

… and catch that bandit red-handed! Hmpf! Grmpf!
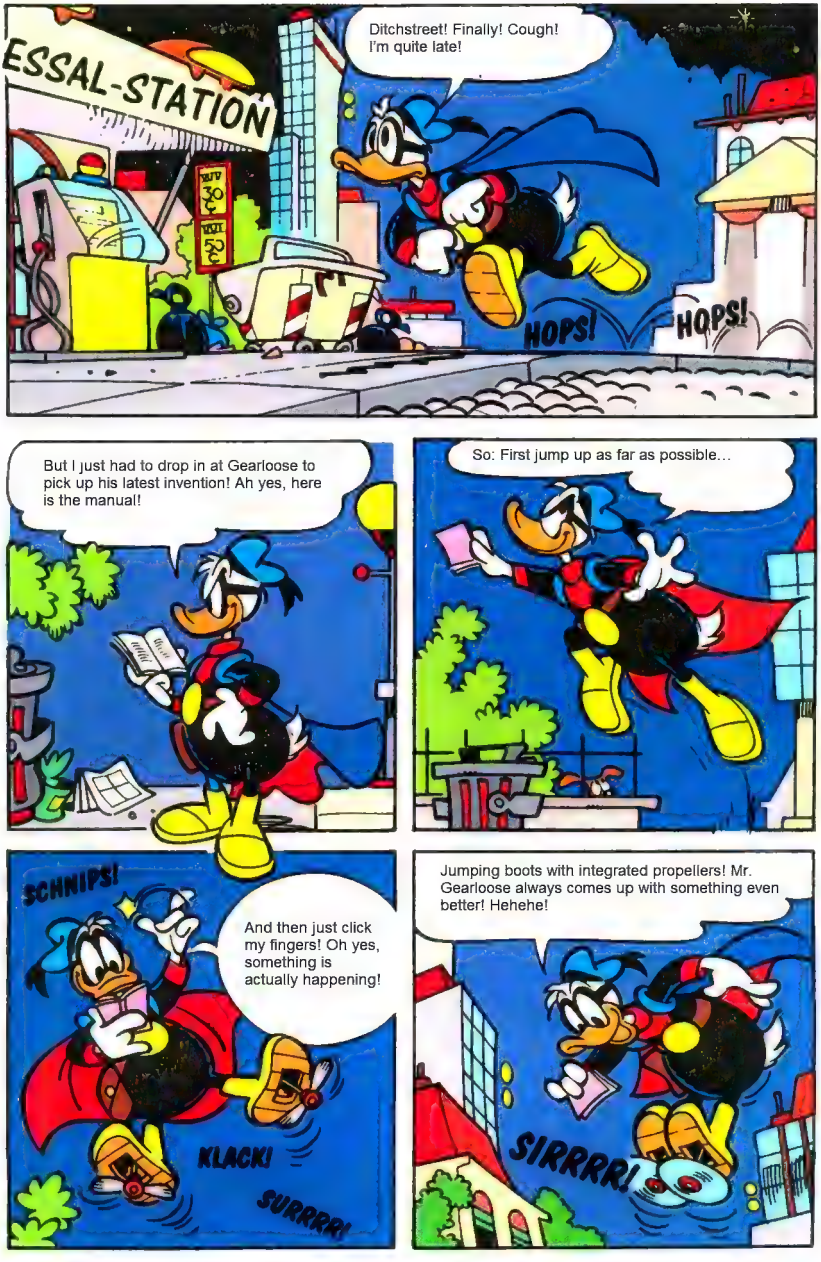
Let's hope for the best! Soon the time has come!

Then I'll deliver the case!
Just trust in us!



ESSAL-STATION
Ditchstreet! Finally! Cough! I'm quite late!
HOPS!
HOPS!
But I just had to drop in at Gearloose to pick up his latest invention! Ah yes, here is the manual!
So: First jump up as far as possible...
SCHNIPS!
And then just click my fingers! Oh yes, something is actually happening!
KLACK!
SURRRR!
Jumping boots with integrated propellers! Mr. Gearloose always comes up with something even better! Hehehe!
SIRRRR!

These things are perfect to monitor the Contaminator inconspicously from up above!
Look at that! The mayor is on his way to the handover of money at the container!
Ha! Ha! That scoundral's time in the spotlight is up! As soon as he gets here to obtain the case, the police will step into action and arrest this guy!
Meanwhile...
Hrmpfff!
PU-UFFF!
KNATTER!

Ack! The container is driving away! He must have a motor with a remote control!
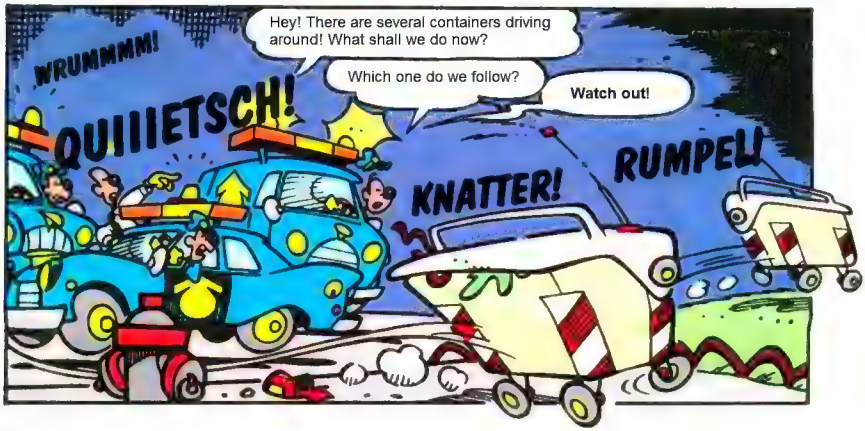
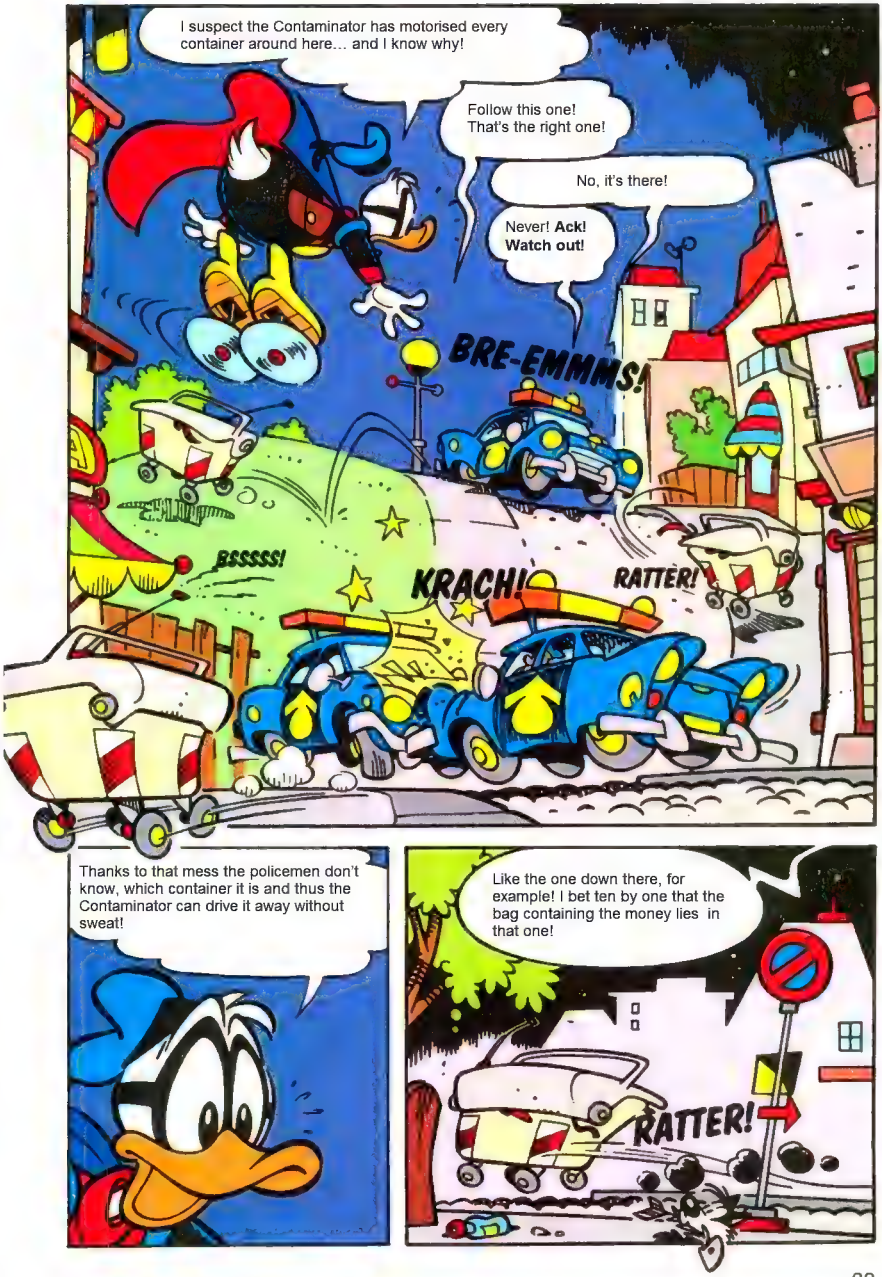
BSSSSS!
KNATTER!
SURRRR!

What has the Contaminator come up with this time? It's unbelievable!
Stop! Stop the thief! Hold it! Just do something!

Caution! To all cars! Follow the container!
This should be eay! I don't think that trash buggy will be all too fast! Haha! So go!
WRUMMM!
WRUMMM!
WRUMMM!
WRUMMM!



Hey! There are several containers driving around! What shall we do now?
Which one do we follow?
Watch out!
WRUMMM!
QUIIIETSCH!
KNATTER!
RUMPEL!



I suspect the Contaminator has motorised every container around here... and I know why!
Follow this one! That's the right one!
No, it's there!
Never! Ack! Watch out!
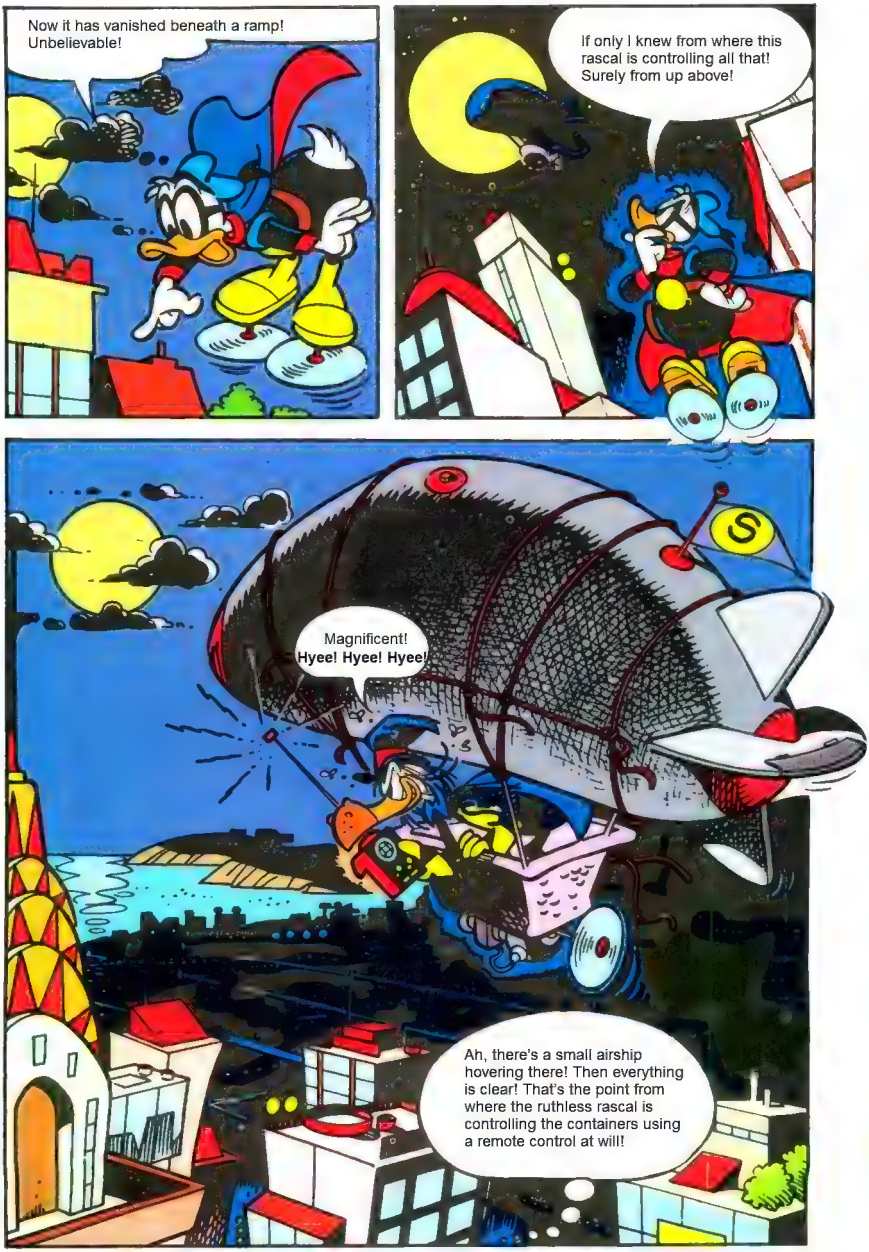
BRE-EMMMS!
BSSSSS!
KRACH!
RATTER!
Thanks to that mess the policemen don't know, which container it is and thus the Contaminator can drive it away without sweat!
Like the one down there, for example! I bet ten by one that the bag containing the money lies in that one!
RATTER!



Now it has vanished beneath a ramp! Unbelievable!
If only I knew from where this rascal is controlling all that! Surely from up above!
Magnificent! Hyee! Hyee! Hyee!
Ah, there's a small airship hovering there! Then everything is clear! That's the point from where the ruthless rascal is controlling the containers using a remote control at will!

And in order to go unnoticed he has painted the airship black! You just wait...
Ack! One of my sole-rotators has stopped working! I... am falling! Oh no!
SIRRRR-KNIRKS!
At the same time on the ground ..
No chance, Mr. Mayor! The container has vanished!
Grmpf! How will I explain that to my voters!
We can't even protect a container! So despite the money I have also lost my face! Sigh!
Sigh!... Maybe we should have asked the Duck Avenger for help...
ROMMS!

I... uh... excuse me! I must have flown a bit too low! Hehe!
I can't shake off the feeling we've been overestimating that super hero enormously!
A lot later...
I could repair that stupid sole-rotor, but I've lost a lot of time! Mumble!
Ah! Look at that! The blackmailer's airship is hovering exactly above the factory site! And I'm also seeing a light burning underneath it!
SIRRR!
SIRRRR!

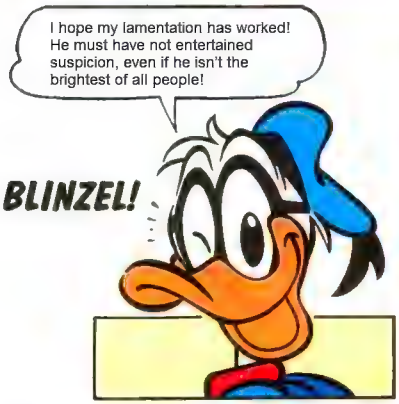
Oh no! What's suddenly…
SCHWIII-UUUPP!
Yikes! Heeelp! Nooooo!
POFF!
Screech! I've completely lost orientation! I can't…
BADOMM!

Quite a bit later...
Groan! Moan! Uff! Where am I? What has happened? I can't remember...
Ack! Oh no! Why am I in bonds? Who did that to me?
That would be me, my most honoured! Hyee! Hyee! Hyee! None other but me!
Hyee! The great Duck Avenger has fallen for my trap like a beginner!
The Contaminator!
Who would have thought it would end like this, hyee? My dear, you're just not clever enough for an enemy like me!
Criminal!
But in exchange you enjoy the honour to witness the biggest coup of the next global dominator!
But you've got the money for stopping...

Stopping? Pah! Who comes up with such a thing? With that million I'm only just getting started!
First I'll buy 50000 liters of water resistent, indebile ink, with which I will cover the White House tomorrow morning!
Yikes!
You don't mean the White House of Duckburg... The seat of our government! Gasp!
Oh yes, that one, exactly! One has to make sure that one is well-known and gathers followers, am I not right? Advertising is a neccessity!
Followers? What
All the people who love derangement and general chaos – just like me!
And believe me, this world is full of them! Just think of all the people throwing their trash into nature when picknicking... or of the pollution of our rivers and seas...
All those polluters, mucky pops and destroyers desperately need a leader... a boss! And that's me!

Everything is well-prepared! Just across in the hall there's a plane waiting that carries a basin full of ink!
But enough talking! I have to go now! The morning of my triumph is getting closer!
Gulp! And what about me?
Sadly you have to wait for another hour, until this candle starts the apparatus which will finally open the trap-door you're sitting on!
SÄURE
3 KG
The beautiful boiler you will then land in is filled with boiling tar by the way!
BLUBB!
BLUBB!
You sure will be a nice statue as soon as you have cooled down! Hyee! Hyee!
That... you don't reall mean that, do you?

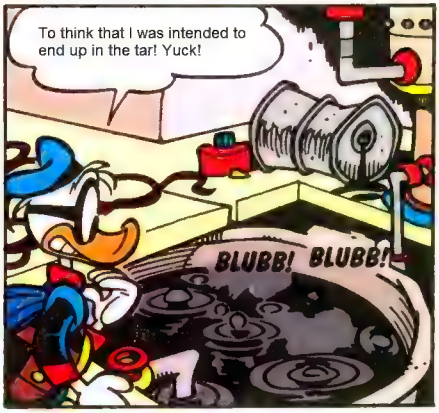
Why not, Tinpot hero? Sadly you won't be here anymore to experience how I rule the world!
No! You can't do this to me! Have a heart!
SÄURE



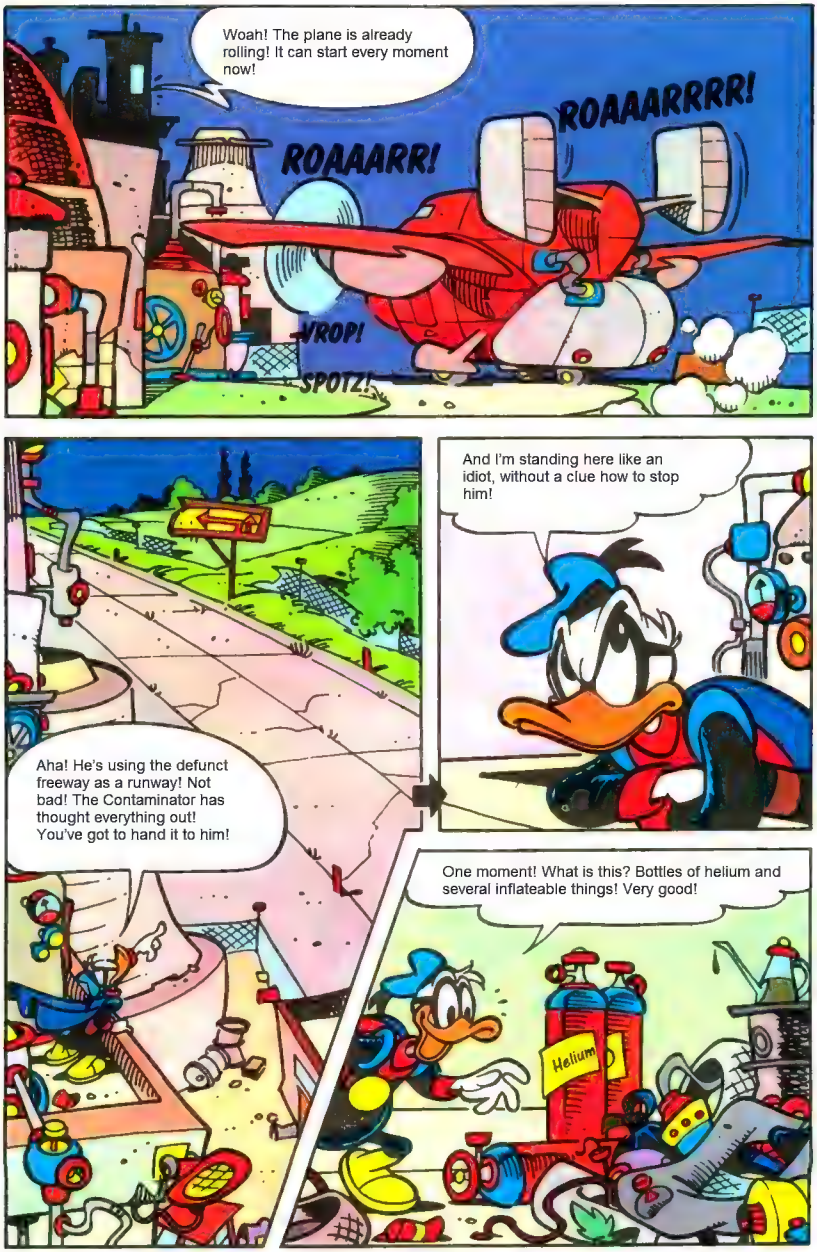
I hope my lamentation has worked! He must have not entertained suspicion, even if he isn't the brightest of all people!
BLINZEL!

If this crazy Contaminator knew that I need 30 seconds at max to get free... thanks to the laser in my belt!

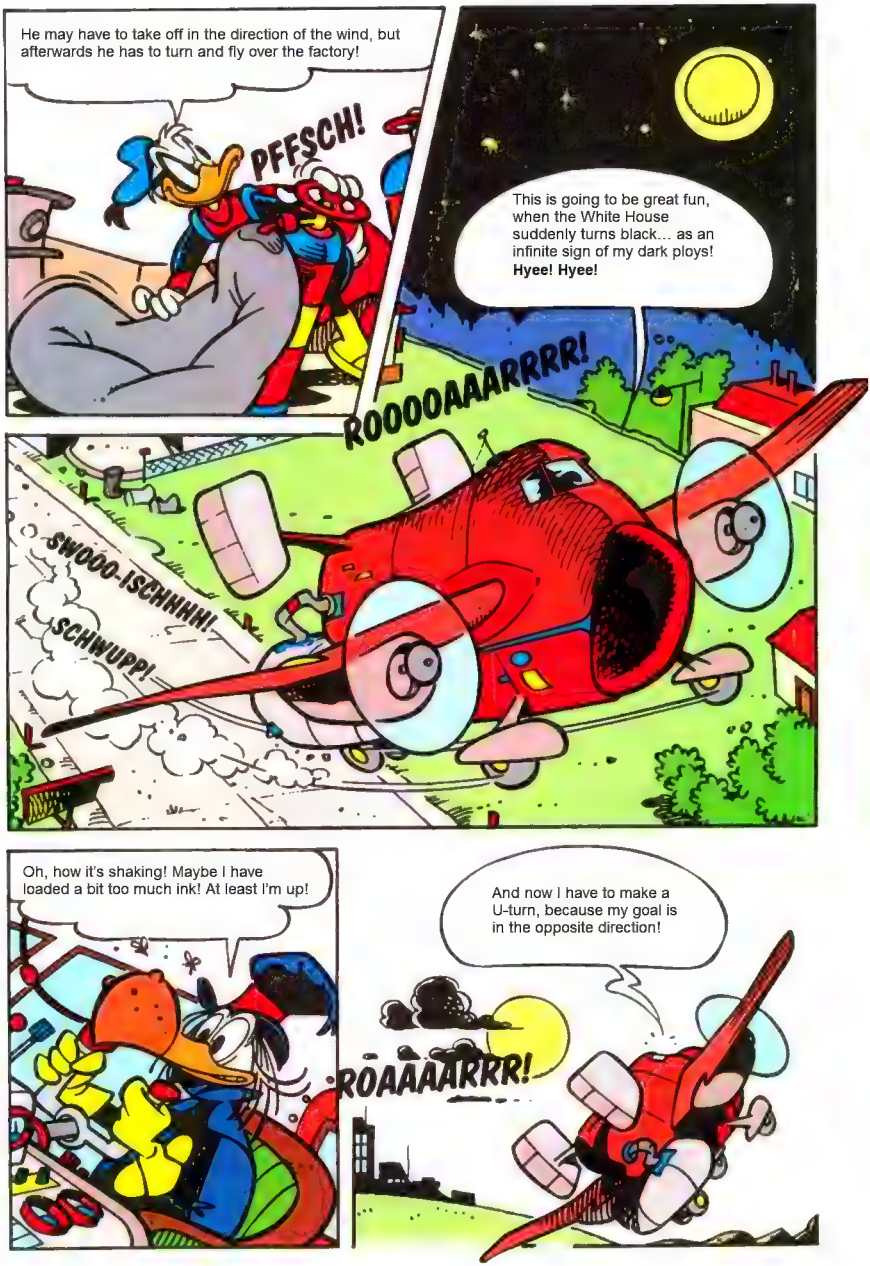
And thus I'm free of the chains! Amazing how free and easy one feels!



To think that I was intended to end up in the tar! Yuck!
BLUBB!
BLUBB!



Woah! The plane is already rolling! It can start every moment now!
ROAAARR!
ROAAARRRR!
VROP!
SPOTZ!
Aha! He's using the defunct freeway as a runway! Not bad! The Contaminator has thought everything out! You've got to hand it to him!
And I'm standing here like an idiot, without a clue how to stop him!
One moment! What is this? Bottles of helium and several inflateable things! Very good!
Helium



He may have to take off in the direction of the wind, but afterwards he has to turn and fly over the factory!
PFFSCH!
This is going to be great fun, when the White House suddenly turns black... as an infinite sign of my dark ploys! Hyee! Hyee!
ROOOOAAARRRR!
SWOOO-ISCHHHH!
SCHWUPP!
Oh, how it's shaking! Maybe I have loaded a bit too much ink! At least I'm up!
And now I have to make a U-turn, because my goal is in the opposite direction!
ROAAAARRR!

Yikes! Blow me! What the heck is that?
Noooo!!!!!!
This can only be the Duck Avenger!
Hehe! If it isn't a surprise! Hehe!
In cases like this one I'm always glad for the magnets in my belt!
KLACK!

The rest will be done by my electric tin-opener, brand "Duck Avenger Speciale"!
RITSCH!
KNIRZ!
SURRRRR!
RATSCH!
So, that's that! Now on to the enemy! Let the fight begin! Attack!
Now I'll show you!
What? You're here? Just how could you get free?
Then I'll just give you a load of acid! Here you go!
Off target!
Just wait! Now you're in for a treat! Take this! And that!
KNUFF!
Ouch! This demands revenge!
ZACK!
I'll show you! Pant! Rattle!
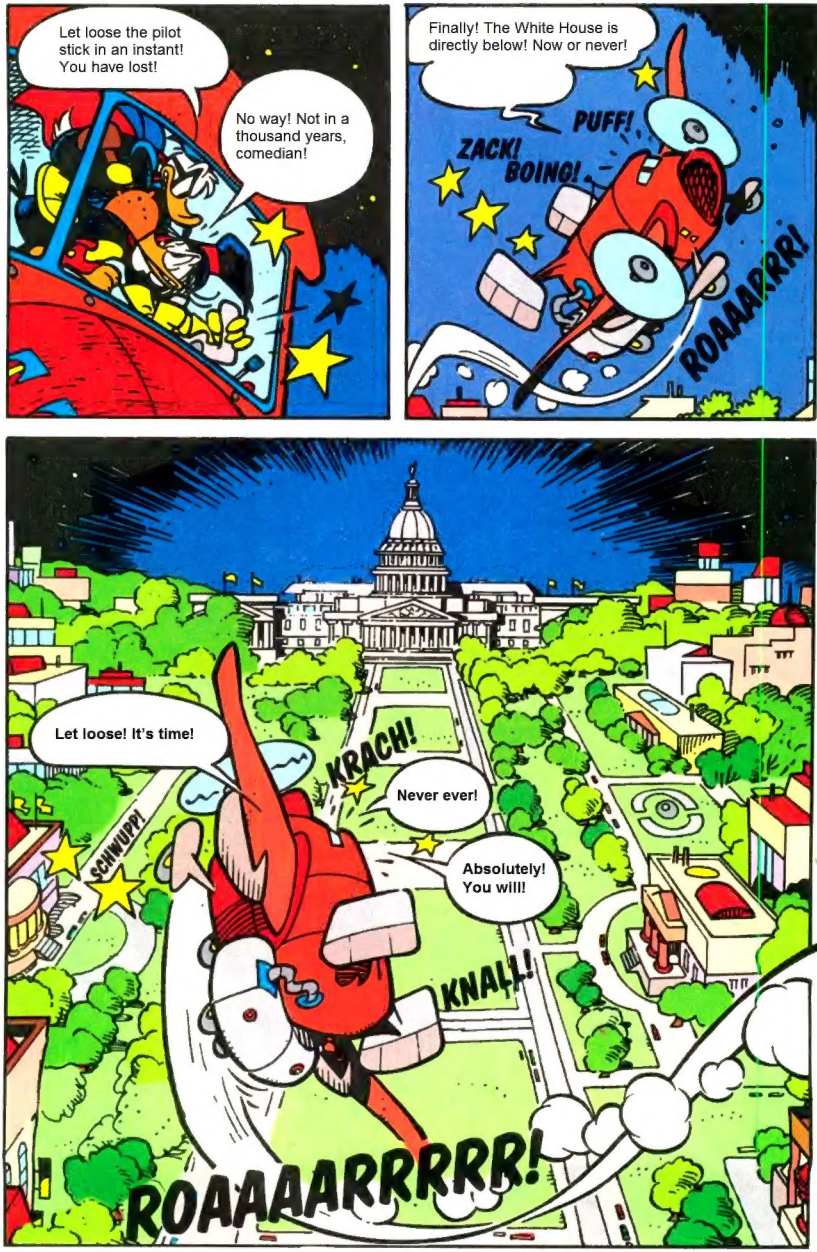
Hyee! Hyee! How do you like my breastbag full of smog? Take a deep breath!
PU-UUFFF!



Let loose the pilot stick in an instant! You have lost!
No way! Not in a thousand years, comedian!
Finally! The White House is directly below! Now or never!
PUFF!
ZACK!
BOING!
ROAAAARRR!
Let loose! It's time!
KRACH!
Never ever!
Absolutely! You will!
SCHWUPP!
KNALL!
ROAAAARRRRR!

KRACH-BUMM!
Botheration! Crap! All the water-resistant spill-resistant ink, gone! Just leaked out!
Oh no, another accident!
But at least the White House is safe! Thanks to the Duck Avenger it's still shiny white!
Pah! Such a stupid, naïve Mr. Clean! Yuck!

But one thing is left for my gratification: The ink in your face won't go down that easily! Tomorrow you can say farewell to your secret identity!
Ack! That's right! Even my beak is all black!
There are a lot of people coming! The Mayor is among them too! They must have followed us!
What's up there?
A plane crash! And just in front of the White House!
Now pay attention! Soon your eyes will pop!
RIIITSCH!
Now you're astonished, aren't you? Whenever I have to deal with a mucky pup like you, I always wear my over-overall that covers everything, even my head!
Now it became apparent again: The Duck Avenger is always victorious in the end!
Long live our hero!
Hmpf! I'll be back!

Some time later...
Great, see what's written in the paper, Uncle Donald! You have to read it!
The Duck Avenger was amazing again! Have you ever seen the Contaminator by the way?
Me? No! Yawwwwn!
That was really an evil rascal! Good that he sits in jail now!
Sitting my ass! He has to work! He must clean everything he has muddled up!
And that's good! But I think this isn't bothering him as much...
... as the fact that he has to stay in nice, bright and clean cell of the new model-jail of Duckburg! Hehe!
Do you think so? Hehehe!
END
